CASE NUMBER: 4:12CR00255-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall participate in a program, inpatient or outpatient, for the treatment of drug and/or alcohol addiction, dependency or abuse which may include, but not be limited to urine, breath, saliva and skin testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs and/or alcohol. Further, the defendant shall participate as instructed and as deemed necessary by the probation officer and shall comply with all rules and regulations of the treatment agency until discharged by the Program Director with the approval of the probation officer. The defendant shall further submit to drug-detection techniques, in addition to those performed by the treatment agency, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant will incur costs associated with such drug/alcohol detection and treatment, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit to periodic urine surveillance and/or breath, saliva, and skin tests for the detection of drug abuse as directed by the probation officer. The defendant will incur costs associated with such detection efforts based on ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information. If a fine or restitution amount has been imposed, the defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall report the address where the defendant will reside and any subsequent change of residence to the probation officer responsible for supervision and the defendant shall register with the sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. The probation officer will provide the state officials with any and all information required by the state sex offender registration agency and may direct the defendant to report to that agency personally for additional processing, such as photographing and fingerprinting.

The defendant is required to participate in a mental health program as deemed necessary and approved by the probation officer. The defendant will incur costs associated with such program, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.

The defendant shall inform all potential employers, volunteer, civic or cultural organizations, for which he is affiliated, in writing, of the nature of the instant offense.

The defendant is prohibited from traveling with any female, other than identified relatives, unless approved in advance by the United States Probation Officer.

The defendant is required to cooperate in the testing for the presence of the etiologic agent for acquired immune deficiency syndrome (HIV) and the results of the test are to be communicated to the identified victims and the defendant, accompanied by appropriate counseling, pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act of 1994, Section 40503.

The defendant shall not view, possess or have under his/her control, any nude depictions of children, sexually oriented or sexually stimulating materials, including visual, auditory, telephonic, or electronic media, computer programs or services. The defendant shall not patronize any place where such material or entertainment is the primary source of business. The defendant shall not utilize any sex-related telephone numbers.

See Additional Special Conditions of Supervision.
